Wentworth Technology, Inc. SpeedThru Referral Program Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions:
 - Wentworth Technology means Wentworth Technology, Inc.
 - "Referrer" means individual or company that provides the information to Wentworth Technology of a potential new Wentworth Technology customer.
 - "Referred company" means the individual or company referred to Wentworth Technology by the Referrer that becomes a Wentworth Technology customer.
 - "Wentworth Technology referral program" means the program described on <http://www.wentworthtechnology.com/referrals>
2. The Wentworth Technology Referral Program is valid only for referrals on new product installations for customers that have not already purchased any Wentworth Technology products or are already in communications with Wentworth Technology. Offer valid in the US only and cannot be combined with any other offers. The Referrer cannot be an owner, employee or agent of the Referred company. The Referrer cannot be a Wentworth Technology employee or family member of a Wentworth Technology employee. The Referrer cannot be an owner, employee or agent of an organization with which Wentworth Technology has an affiliate or distribution agreement. The Referrer cannot have a corporate-franchisee relationship or vice versa with the referred company.
3. The referral program will be capped at 10 systems going to one Referred company.
4. Misuse of the Wentworth Technology Referral program may result in legal action and forfeiture of the offer.
5. The Referral program is subject to the Wentworth Technology terms and conditions as posted and periodically updated on the Wentworth Technology website at www.wentworthtechnology.com
6. The Referrer is an independent contractor. Referrer is not an agent, affiliate, employee, joint venture or partner of Wentworth Technology. Referrer cannot make representations beyond representations located at www.wentworthtechnology.com.
7. Any customer that becomes a customer of Wentworth Technology by being referred to the product is a customer of Wentworth Technology for the products and services procured from Wentworth Technology.
8. Payment. Payment for business referrals is made by issuing a check, payable to the Referrer. Payment will not occur until the referred customer has installed and paid for the product and any related services completely. Payment will be forfeited if the Referrer's W-9 is not provided to Wentworth Technology prior to or at the time the referral is given.
9. WARRANTY. Wentworth Technology's warranty applies.
10. The governing law for this agreement is Maine, and any litigation will be in York County, Maine.
11. Program is valid on orders placed by 12/31/13.
